SuperRatings reward funds with ratings that range from Platinum, Gold and Silver, as well as others. These ratings are earned, not bestowed. They are coveted by super funds, sought by members and respected by the media. And like all awards, their value increases every year.

In an increasingly competitive market, super fund members rely on independent analysis and validation of their chosen fund – which is exactly what the SuperRatings ratings and awards deliver.

A SuperRatings award or rating logo indicates a fund that measures up to the independent scrutiny of the oldest and most respected industry ratings brand.

The award and ratings logos are displayed by super funds rightfully proud of their achievements. They cannot be bought. They are earned by those funds that rise above their peers. They are the result of exhaustive analysis of hundreds of assessment components including both quantitative and qualitative criteria.

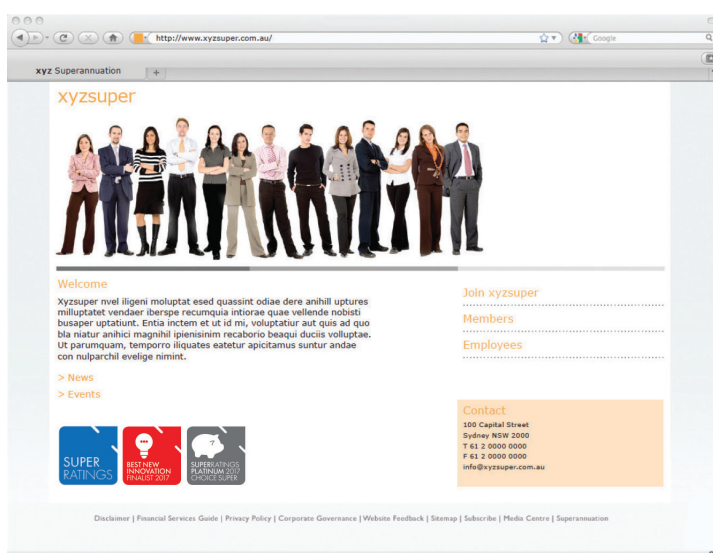

Annual ratings reflect a fund's current performance, while 5, 7 and 10 Year Platinum awards honour funds that deliver consistent industry-leading performance.

Awards not only acknowledge the best funds across the super landscape, but also product innovation, sustainable investment and the industry's rising stars.

Package content includes provision of logos in multiple formats and access to product fundamental report (2-page summary) updated monthly.
